

No : 13

Date : 04/04/2014

REGIONAL GROSS VALUE ADDED, 2004-2011

Regional gross value added statistics calculated by Turkish Statistical Institute, is one of the main data sources supplying detailed information on regional economies.

Regional gross value added statistics are calculated annually at current prices by economic activities and published for three main sectors as agriculture, industry and services by Classification of Statistical Regional Units, Level 2 (SRE) including 26 regions.

A report based on regional gross value added statistics and including comprehensive evaluations at Turkey and SRE level for 2004-2011 periods has been published at TurkStat website on 04/04/2014 under the reports subtitle which is taken place under the publications title, with the name "Regional Gross Value Added, 2004-2011".

Announced to the public with respect.